

AFRA Winter 2020 Study Abroad in JAMAICA!

Information sessions: Sept 9th 416 Ewing Hall
1:30pm & 2:30pm

Whether you're interested in political history, reggae music, or seeing gorgeous waterfalls, the 2020 Winter (micro) session in Jamaica is your chance to learn about African diaspora culture in the Caribbean.

Based at the University of the West Indies at Mona, you'll interact with a variety of people as you study history and culture. This exciting program includes a variety of excursions to the Bob Marley museum, Maroon Mountain, Dancehall, and includes a weekend trip to Montego Bay.

AFRA 332 or HIST 332:
History of Caribbean II

This course satisfies University History Breadth and Arts and Sciences (Group B)

The Program Fee includes housing, all program related events and excursions, most meals, and in-country transportation

For more information and instructions for applying visit the Global Studies website: https://international.udel.edu/DB/PUB_Program.aspx?Pgm=2551

Please email Dr. Brown with any questions: drbrown@udel.edu